

Who owns FairCoins today?

With the combined Proof-of-Work and Proof-of-Stake mechanism some additional 50.000 FairCoins per month have been given to various minters until 17th of July 2017 as a reward for being online with their wallets. With the introduction of the FairCoin Proof-of-Cooperation mechanism on July 18th, 2017, no more mining is possible.

As of December 2016, about 53 million FairCoins were spread roughly as follows:

9 million are owned by people outside the FairCoop ecosystem, where no one has more than 600.000
32,5 million are owned by people who are active in the FairCoop ecosystem 11.5 million are in the hands of FairCoop funds, whereas 10 million have been donated by Enric Duran
